INFORMATION & REPORTS

A. Community Celebration

Mr. Owen shared plans for the Kelloggsville Community Celebration which will take place on Friday, September 17, 2021 from 4:30 PM – 7:00 PM in front of Kelloggsville Middle School. Final preparations are underway with approximately 19+ groups being represented, providing a fun variety of activities for all ages. The entire school community is invited to this event which concludes with the Rockets hosting Hopkins for a varsity football game following the celebration.

B. Superintendent Interview Process

Mr. Wright and the Board reviewed the interview process and discussed the format as well as the questions that will be asked to each of the candidates. The interviews will be part of the 09/27/21 agenda and will be held in an open meeting for staff and community members to listen to the answers by the candidates to the questions asked by board members, followed by an opportunity for candidates to make a short presentation. The Board will not make a final decision on the candidates until a later date.

OTHER MATTERS - None

INTRODUCTION OF MATTERS BY BOARD MEMBERS

- Ms. Townsend – shared that she is glad to see that the district is moving along well through the school year despite all of the unknown issues such as COVID, construction, completion of Central, etc. She is thankful to have such a wonderful Superintendent and those who work alongside him, that he cares so much about our community;
- Mrs. Reidzans – looking forward to Friday’s Community Celebration;
- Mr. Marihugh – is also looking to Friday’s celebration and seeing the entire school community come back together again - - it has been awhile since that has taken place and will be nice to see again;
- Mrs. Groters - nothing;
- Mrs. Tanis - nothing
- Ms. Sellers – shared appreciation for the hard work put into getting the school year up and running. She is also looking forward to what the future has in store for Kelloggsville;
- Mrs. Ward – extended appreciation for all the district is doing to keep staff and students as safe as possible and for the many learning opportunities and fun that will take place this year;
