Counseling Comments:

Credit Recovery Reminder: Students have only until the beginning of Christmas break (December 22) to complete and pass their credit recovery classes in APEX. Do not procrastinate.

Seniors: All seniors should continue to explore their post-secondary plan and how to afford higher learning. FAFSA will open on December 31, 2023. While no official cut-off date has been announced, students should try to submit their FAFSA by March 1st to get the most aid available to them. Scholarship applications are also opening up. See the scholarship list available on the virtual counseling office or talk to Mrs. Craft.

FAFSA Nights: Kelloggsville will be hosting FAFSA Nights on January 18th and 31st. During these nights, students and families can complete the FAFSA here at Kelloggsville High School with financial aid representatives. If you plan on attending please bring a parent or guardian (they will need to have their own FSA ID), tax documents, and please know your social security number. Please contact Ms. Craft if you have any questions.

Food and drinks will be provided.

Sophomores & Juniors:

KCTC program visits are currently open until December 15 but openings are very limited. Let Mr. Linker know ASAP if you have not already done so.

The dates/times to apply for KCTC will open in February. Be sure to check your emails and announcements for that window to open.

Freshmen/Sophomores:

If you are interested in applying for Launch U - Early/Middle College Program through the KISD, be sure to see Mr. Linker before the end of the semester for information. Continue to check your email and announcements for more information

Parents of seniors: In order to participate in graduation ceremonies and all senior end-of-year activities, seniors must have ALL current and credit recovery credits completed by May 9. After this date, students can still earn their diploma, but walking at graduation will not be permitted. Please encourage them to work diligently to meet these important deadlines!

Announcements:

Holiday break: Students will have a ½ day of school on Friday, December 22nd. No school Monday, December 25th through Friday, January 5th. School will resume on Monday, January 8th. The high school offices will be closed during this break.

Theater Production: Kelloggsville Theater's production of "Radium Girls" is on Friday, December 8th and Saturday, December 9th at 7pm, $5 at the door.

Written by D.W. Gregory, "Radium Girls" is set in 1926, when radium was a miracle cure, Madame Marie Curie an international celebrity, and glow-in-the-dark watches the latest rage. That was until the women who painted the watches began to fall ill.

Inspired by a true story, "Radium Girls" traces the efforts of Grace Fryer, a dial painter, as she fights for her day in court seeking compensation for the suffering she and others suffered in the name of profit.

Senior pictures: Senior pictures are due for the yearbook no later than January 19th. Please turn them into Mr. Fron by email at rfron@kvilleps.org or bring in a hard copy into the main office.

2023-2024 Senior Ads: The yearbook staff is now taking orders for senior ads. It is a great way to show off your senior and say special congratulations that will be remembered forever. For information about ordering, please contact Mr. Fron at 532-1570 or by email at rfron@kvilleps.org.

Electronic devices policy reminder: Electronic Communication Devices (Cell phones, MP3 players, etc.) – All ECD's must remain in a student's Locker between 8am and 3pm. Violations of this policy will result in confiscation of the ECD and school discipline, which could include suspension or expulsion. Students who refuse to surrender their ECD will face discipline consequences up to and including suspension.

After school guidelines: Any student who is not supervised by a teacher, coach, or staff member is to be out of the building at 3:10 PM. Students need to make ride arrangements, take a school or city bus home, walk home, or join an after-school club or athletic team. If you have extenuating circumstances, please see Mr. Patin or Mr. Gentile.

Appearance/dress code reminder: Students are expected to dress in a manner that is not disruptive to the educational environment. Shoes must be worn at all times. Pajamas, lounge pants, etc. or slippers are not acceptable. Sleeveless shirts must have a shoulder strap width of at least 2 ½ inches. Undergarments must not be visible. Head coverings or sunglasses of any kind are not permitted in the school building. See-through tops, muscle shirts, low-cut blouses, shirts that expose the mid-section, as well as clothing with sayings that promote alcohol, tobacco, drugs, or sex are not acceptable. No clothing may be worn that identifies gang affiliation, or be worn in a manner that suggests gang affiliation. Sagging pants will not be tolerated. Chains of any gauge are not to be worn in school regardless of their purpose. Skirts and shorts must be fingertip length to be appropriate for school. Leggings and yoga pants are allowed if they are worn with a dress, skirt, shorts or long top that covers the behind (front and back). Student dress is expected to be modest, and inappropriate clothing must be changed. Disciplinary action may also result. Students are also expected to adhere to these policies at school-related functions. Final decision concerning dress code violations rests with the KHS administration.

Come One, Come all! The Kelloggsville Symphonic Band will be performing their holiday concert featuring two band classics and two holiday selections! The concert will be held on Monday, December 11th, 7 PM, in the high school gym. Admission is FREE and promises to be a great time!
